Careers at NeverTechLate

NeverTechLate is regularly looking for talented and passionate Coaches interested in joining the inspiring adventure of empowering older adults and bridging the digital gap. NeverTechLate curriculum and your teaching excellence will enable our students to access the social connections, lifelong learning experiences and crucial services available when solid digital skills are learned.

What we love to see in a NeverTechLate (“NTL”) coach:

- Experience in teaching adults
- Experience in teaching online
- Solid knowledge of and/or interest in digital skills
- Teaching in a manner that develops students' confidence in their abilities
- Excellent presentation abilities (in person and online)
- A nurturing and adaptable approach to instructing
- Passionate about fostering digital literacy and lifelong learning
- Will have acquired through the NTL 20-hour training program a thorough understanding of the NTL Instructional Design
